TO CONSUMERS OF

PICKLES.

BELIEVING that the Public have become tired of purchasing Pickles in Packages holding, in many cases, fifty per cent. less than represented, we have commenced putting up, in addition to our present second size jar, an article which we are labelling "WM. UNDERWOOD & CO'S EXTRA PICKLES," and are filling into full sized jars, which are legibly stamped in the glass, with their exact contents in ounces—thus enabling the consumer to verify their truth.

These Extra Pickles are put up with every regard to style, quality and flavor, and will be sold at fairly remunerating prices.

We have made no change in our manner of Greening Pickles, never having resorted to any deleterious means to attain this end. The Cider Vinegar which we use is made from sound fruit, and is entirely free from Vitriol or any other mineral acid, which is not the case with that used in most brands of English Pickles found in this country.

STANLEY HOUSE,

WATER STREET, AUGUSTA, ME.

G. W. RICKER, would respectfully announce to the Traveling Public that he has re-opened the Stanley House, Augusta, and furnished it throughout with NEW and ELEGANT FURNITURE, and made every arrangement necessary to continuing it as a First Class Hotel.

This is the most centrally located House in the city, being directly opposite the Depot, and in close proximity to the steamboat landing, Court House, Post Office, and but a few minutes' walk from the State House.

Business men, or persons traveling for pleasure, will find that this House affords every convenience or luxury that can be desired, and the Proprietor is determined to spare no pains to make it in every respect second to none in the State.

Books for all Stages leaving town will be kept at this House.

In connection with the above are good Stables with attentive and careful Hostlers.

THE HATCH HOUSE,

Main Street, Bangor, Maine.

This House has been thoroughly repaired, refitted, and refurnished throughout with New Carpets, Furniture, Beds and Bedding, and is now open for the reception of company, under the charge of the subscriber.

It is a large, commodious, and well furnished House, situated on Main Street, near the centre of the city, and within a short distance of the Steamboat Wharves and the Depot of the P. & K. Railroad, to and from which Coaches are always in readiness to convey passengers.

Its numerous advantages to strangers, and particularly to those visiting the city on business or for pleasure, renders it one of the most desirable Houses in the city.

Connected with the House is a large and commodious Stable, in charge of competent and faithful hostlers.

By strict personal attention to the comfort of his guests, the proprietor hopes to receive a liberal share of patronage.

550,000 Acres Selected Pine and Farming Land

IN MICHIGAN.

THE SAINT MARY'S FALLS SHIP CANAL COMPANY

OFFER for sale these Lands, which are principally situated in the lower Peninsula of Michigan, on and in the vicinity of the large streams and rivers, easy of access, and selected under more favorable circumstances than

Any other Western Lands,

Were chosen with particular reference to their location on the streams and the quantity and quality of the pine timber. On this account,

For Lumbering Purposes,

They are very desirable and valuable. The streams are large, and capable of floating logs at all seasons of the year, with harbors at their mouths, on the Lake. At many of these points settlements and extensive lumber operations, are formed and conducted with uniform success, proving already the most profitable lumber operations in the Union, and having access, by means of Lake navigation, to and the other great Lumber Markets of the country.

CHICAGO, DETROIT,

Tracts of from 40 to 40,000 acres will be found at convenient points, affording opportunities for either a small or the most extensive lumbering operations. A large portion of these Lands are among

The Best Farming Lands of the West, and as they contain enough of the FINEST PINE TIMBER to more than pay for the land, fencing, moderate buildings, and other improvements, offer very superior inducements to farmers seeking a western home.

The Climate is Mild and Equable, and soil and climate both suited to all the grains, fruits, and produce raised in the most favored portions of the West.

Companies of 10, 15 or 20 Persons, with their families, will find location, just suited to the formation of a settlement, with good water power, and convenient access to neighboring settlements.

TERMS.

One-fifth will be required at the date of sale, and the balance in one, two, three and four years, with interest at six per cent. per annum.

The Company have full and complete descriptions of each tract of their lands, from actual exploration by several different parties, with accurate maps of each township, according to government surveys. These may be seen at the

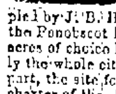

Land Office of the Company in Detroit, Michigan,

Copies of Maps, field notes, and other information concerning the lands will be furnished, without charge, to those wishing to purchase.

☞ Large Maps of the State, showing the lands of the Company, will be found at public places in most of the principal towns in the Eastern and North-western States. GEO. S. FROST, Land Agent.

The Blind Boy at Play.

BY ELIZA COOK.

The blind boy's been at play, mother,
And merry games we had;
We led him on his way, mother,
And every step was glad;
But when we found a starry flower,
And praised its varied hue,
A tear came trembling down his cheek,
Just like a drop of dew.

We took him to the mill, mother,
Where falling waters made
A rainbow o'er the rills, mother,
As golden sun-rays played;
But when we shouted at the scene,
And hailed the clear, blue sky,
He stood quite still upon the bank,
And breathed a long, long sigh.

We asked him why he wept, mother,
When o'er we found the spots
Where periwinkles crept, mother,
O'er wild forget-me-nots.
"Ah me!" he said, while tears ran down
As fast as summer showers—
"It is because I cannot see
The sunshine and the flowers."

Oh! that poor, sightless boy, mother,
He taught me that I'm blest;
For I can look with joy, mother,
On all I love the best;
And when I see the dancing stream,
And daisies red and white,
I kneel upon the meadow sod,
And thank my God for sight.

A Scene at Sea.

In the year 1830, there was hovering on the African coast a large clipper brig, called the Brilliante, commanded by a desperado named Homan. Homan was an Englishman by birth, and was known along the whole coast and in Cuba, as the most successful slaver of his day. The brig was owned by two men residing in Havana—one an Englishman and the other a Spaniard. She was built to carry six hundred negroes, and in her Homan had made ten successful voyages, actually landing in Cuba five thousand negroes. The brig carried ten guns, had thirty sweeps, and a crew of sixty Spaniards, most of them old pirates, as desperate as their commander. An English brig of war which attacked her, was so cut up in hull and rigging that she was abandoned and soon after sunk. An English sloop of war attempted to carry the Brilliante with boats, which were beaten off with great slaughter. Now, it was known that Homan was again on the African coast for another cargo, and it was resolved to make another attempt to take him, with the evidence of his guilt on board. The arrangements for that purpose were well made. He was allowed to take in his cargo of negroes and set sail.

The Brilliante had not lost sight of the coast when the quick eye of her commander discovered that he was entrapped. Four cruisers, three of them English, and one American, had been lying in wait for him, and escape was hopeless. In running away from one, he would come within reach of another. Night was coming on, and Homan was silently regarding his pursuer, when suddenly the huge sails of the brig flapped idly, the wind died away, and the slaver was motionless on the water. "This will not do," Homan muttered, knocking away the ashes from his cigar, "their boats will be down on me before I am ready for the visit;" as he said this his stern face lit up with a smile, the expression of which was diabolical. It was evident enough that he meditated some desperate plan.

A dozen sweeps were got out, and the vessel moved silently through the water. Meanwhile the darkness having deepened, Homan began to carry out his design.

The cable attached to the heaviest anchor was taken outside of the hawser hole, and carried around the brig, extending from the bow and round the stern, and then forward on the other side. The hatches were then taken off, and the negroes passed up, and securely ironed by the wrists. As the miserable wretches came up from the hold into the fresh air, they expressed by their looks a gratitude which would have softened the heart of any but the fiend in whose power they were.—Without a word they were led to the side and made to bend over the rail, outside of which the chain ran. The irons which clasped their wrists were then fastened by smaller chains to the links of the cable. It was slow work, but at the end of four hours 600 Africans, male and female, were bending over the rail of the brig, in a painful position, holding by their chained hands the huge cable which was attached to a heavy anchor suspended by a single sling from the bow.

Homan himself examined the fastenings to see that every negro was securely bound to the chain. This done he ordered the pen-work of the hold to be broken up, brought on deck, bound in matting, and well filled with shot, and thrown overboard. The work was completed an hour before daybreak, and now the only witnesses of Homan's guilt were attached to that fatal chain. Homan turned to the first mate, and with a smile full of meaning, said in Spanish:

"Harro, take an axe and go forward. The wind will come off to us soon. Listen to the word, and when you hear it, cut the sling."

The man went forward, and Homan turned and in vain endeavored to penetrate the darkness. "I don't want to see those niggers," he said, speaking aloud, "and yet I dare not wait until daylight; I wish I knew where the hounds are."

At that instant the report of a gun reached his ear, then another, in different directions. The cruisers were firing signals.

"That's enough," exclaimed Homan. "I know where you are." Then raising his voice he cried: "Harro, are you ready? The wind will reach us soon."

"Ay, ay, sir" was the response.

In a few minutes the sails began to fill, and the vessel moved slowly through the water.

"How much water do you suppose we have here?" observed Homan, turning to the man at the wheel.

"Fifty fathoms, at least," was the reply.

"That will do," the slaver muttered, and he walked forward and examined carefully the "chain gang," as he brutally termed his diabolical invention.

The negroes sent up piteous groans. For many an hour they had been bent over in this unnatural position; by which they were suffering the keenest torture.

The breeze strengthened, and the Brilliante dashed like a racer over the deep. Homan hailed from the quarter deck, while his men collected in groups, saw unmoved the consummation of the plan.

"Are you ready, Harro?"

"Aye, aye sir."

Homan looked around, and into the darkness, which was fast giving away to the morn. Then he thundered out:

"Strike!"

There was the sound of a single blow, a heavy plunge, and as the cable fell off the side, a crash, above which rose one terrible shriek—it was the last cry of the murdered Africans. One moment more, and all was still. Six hundred human beings had gone down with that anchor and chain into the depths of the ocean!

Two hours after daybreak the Brilliante was overhauled. There was no evidence that she was a slaver, and her captors were obliged to let her pass. The instructions to cruisers at that time did not allow a vessel to be captured unless negroes were found on board.

The Shorter Route to San Francisco.—There seems to be a renewed probability that the Tehauntepec Route to California will be made available, by the building of the Railroad across that Isthmus. The New Orleans papers at least are sanguine that the thing will be done soon. A plank road is to be first made. If completed, that route will undoubtedly supersede the Panama route for all the travel to California and Oregon which now leaves New York, and for a large portion of the overland travel which now departs from St. Louis and Independence, Mo. The opening of the Tehauntepec route would in fact work something of a revolution, not only in the passenger business with California, but also, and perhaps more especially, in the trade between the Eastern and the Western coasts. By this route the distance from Cincinnati to San Francisco is but little more than half the distance from New York to San Francisco, via Panama. The Isthmus of Tehauntepec is directly opposite the mouth of the Mississippi, across the Gulf, and not more than 800 miles from New Orleans, or about 1600 from Cincinnati. It is 2300 miles from New York to Panama, and about 1200 from Panama up the western coast to Tehauntepec. The distance is now 3500 miles from New York via Panama, to the western terminus of the proposed Tehauntepec Railroad. When that road is completed the passage from New York to the same point will be made in about 2200 miles—a saving of 1300. From Cincinnati the distance, as we have said, is 1600 or 1700 only. This advantage the Cincinnati papers say will turn a large portion of the California trade up the Mississippi, instead of to the Atlantic seaports. So far as supplying the great West with the articles of commerce from the Pacific coast or from China or the Indies, is concerned, the trade would flow up the Mississippi as a matter of course, and it is possible that the diminution in distance might send the trade and passenger business for the Eastern and Atlantic States that way, provided the expenses and trouble of two or three trans-shipments were not too great.

The advantage in distance between any part of the United States east of the Rocky Mountains and California, which would be gained by the Tehauntepec route over that by Panama, will be seen by the first glance at the map, and if the route for the railroad is as feasible as represented, American enterprise will not suffer it to remain long unoccupied.

The suggestion of the State of Maine that the salaries of our Governor and Justices of the Supreme Court should be raised, is just, and therefore is to be made. Whenever one of our first men consents to occupy the Executive chair it is at a great pecuniary sacrifice, for the salary is now at precisely the same figure as at the organization of the State, when the sum was equivalent to twice its amount now. The meagreness of the salary has in recent years prevented the Executive chair of Maine from being an object of honorable ambition, and has somewhat degraded the dignity of the office. It ought not so to be. Maine can afford to pay her Chief Magistrate a salary which shall secure the services of men of talent and weight of character for the position.

The Judges of our Supreme Court have a laborious life, and realize for their services about half the sum annually made in their professional business by the first lawyers of the State—such men as Judges are or should be made of. We think justice demands some increase of their pay. It is neither right nor politic to keep the salaries of these high judicial officers at the same point as thirty years ago. The salaries should be at least ample enough to leave neither necessity nor strong inducement for the Judges to have an interest in any kind of business transactions. If we want men of the best talent in these places we must pay them a liberal compensation,—and we think it the best economy to have the best men for Judges and Governors.

The editor of the Providence Journal has been permitted to see one of the new cents just struck off at the Mint. He describes it as a little larger than the dime, and nearly twice as thick. The color might be mistaken for gold. On one side is a flying eagle, with the inscription 'United States of America, 1856,' around the circle; on the other is 'One cent,' within a wreath. It is altogether the handsomest coin of so low a denomination that we have ever seen."

The burglars are at work, further east. In Calais on Sunday night of last week, the store of E. A. Barnard was broken open and an unsuccessful attempt made to force the safe.—James Shannon's meat shop was then entered and $30 or $40 taken from a desk—(as much more being overlooked.)

James Barre's shop was also entered, but no plunder obtained, except a small nibble of cheese.

Fire in Brewer.—The carriage shop of Mr. H. M. Carey, at Brewer, near the Penobscot Bridge, took fire during the intensely cold and windy night of Tuesday—between 12 and 1 o'clock. The fire had made some headway before it was discovered, and several other buildings would have burned if the shop had been destroyed. The few persons who were aroused worked with a will and energy, however, which subdued the fire with no other means than buckets of water. The building (owned by Mr Leach, who occupies also, as a blacksmith) is damaged about $50.

A Grand Concert by the Children. Mr. Solon Wilder, who has been so successful in his Juvenile Singing Classes, has recently been training more than two hundred of the young singers with a view to a public Concert on a larger scale than ever before attempted in this city. This Concert will be given at Norombega on Monday evening, Jan. 12th. A more pleasing entertainment could not be afforded to our people; and we have every reason to believe that it will be eminently successful, and creditable to the children and their instructor.

Decrease of Shipbuilding—Bath District. We learn from the Bath Tribune that the vessels built in that district during the year 1856 comprise 42 ships, 6 barks, 1 brig 6 schooners and 8 boats, of an aggregate tonnage of 39,850. The build of 1855 was 60,000 tons—in 1854 it was 75,000 tons. In 1853, 49,390 tons. After the present year, and perhaps during the present year, the tide will turn again in navigation.

New Appointments.—The following nominations, with others, have been confirmed by the Senate:—John Underwood, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Nebraska, vice Harden, resigned; Robt. W. Adams, Surveyor of the Port of New Orleans, vice Stark, resigned; J. J. Merritt, Consul at Nassau, New Providence, vice Bacon, resigned; Charles W. Kimball, of New Hampshire, Consul at Point a Petre, Island of Guadaloupe, vice Parsons, resigned.

Thos. Cunningham, of Pennsylvania, Associate Justice of the Supreme Court of Kansas, vice Burrill, declined.

Postponement.—The meeting of the Ladies' Kansas Aid Society, appointed for to-day, is postponed on account of the extreme severity of the weather. Notice will be given of the day of meeting.

The Portland State of Maine opens the new year with a new and handsome typographic suit. May it go on prospering.

We find the following in the papers. If the test is reliable, it will be seen at once that a valuable discovery is made,—and the counterfeiters checked in a much dreaded movement:

How to Detect Photographic Bank Bills. The sure method of detecting a photograph is to touch it with a solution composed of 60 grains of cyanide potassium in an ounce of pure water. This solution is a poison. It will remove the photograph impression almost instantaneously, but it will not touch the carbon ink of the bank note plate printer. It can be put up by any apothecary for eighteen pence.

Frog Eating.—A frog supper was given, on Thursday evening last, by a distinguished bon vivant to a few friends. The "game" was of his own procuring, and of the right kind—having a pond manor of the same near Chelsea. The frog business is becoming one of importance, and we hear that as many as 1000 fat greenhiders are procured in a day by good sportsmen. They sell for $2 50 per hundred; and when they become better known as a delicacy they will command a still higher price. No taste has to be cultivated to enjoy them when properly cooked.—Boston Times.

The Union Saved Again. A few weeks ago the following incendiary paragraph was inadvertently admitted into the N. Y. Journal of Commerce.

"W. Strickland, the bookseller who was recently banished from Mobile for the heinous crime of selling three copies of Uncle Tom's Cabin, has opened a bookstore in Milwaukie."

This was a heavy blow at the Union, and appearing in a paper hitherto having the confidence and support of all "National" men, it naturally created an intense excitement and fears for the Union—especially out South. The publication was all a mistake, however, and the Journal of Commerce hastened to explain in the following very handsome and gratifying manner:

"A week or two ago, an employee in this office, who has charge of the mail papers, gave out a printed paragraph, to which, without his intention, the expression to which exception is taken was attached or adhered, and accordingly it got into the paper, quite unexpectedly to all concerned."

The Union is therefore once more safe, if we understand the matter. We suggest, however, as a seasonable precaution, that no "expression" whatever shall for the future be allowed to "attach" or "adhere," to any news item published in the Journal of Commerce.

The Curse at your own Door.—Some people are always opposed to the temperance cause, and can never see any good result from its teachings, until the shadow of the curse falls across their own threshold, and strikes down its victim. Then, when the dead-cart of the rum plague stops at their door, and the solemn summons to "bring out your dead" is uttered, they begin to see and feel with the keenest pangs that there is an evil in the use of intoxicating drinks, and sometimes deplore the countenance they have given to the custom.—They may have lived a long life, and not been brought to mourn the loss of some dear friend by its insidious wiles; and they may have seen their neighbors' sons reel with foul blasphemies upon their lips into the hopeless grave of the drunkard; they may have seen other daughters than theirs wedded to drunken husbands, and witnessed the cruel abuse heaped upon them; they may have seen widows and orphans shivering in the snow storm begging bread; they may have seen the gaping wounds of some rum-maddened suicide; and they may have heard deep cries of anguish and breaking hearts that were none of theirs, and the wild lamentations in Rama while they were in the enjoyment of social happiness around unblighted firesides, and hence realized nothing of the accursed destruction of rum. They may have defended it in its unholy shedding of blood and spoken harsh words against those who proclaim its infamy. They may have taken it in their own homes, and given it an honorable place in the family circle. But when the serpent has become warmed into a vigorous life, and turned and stung a member of their own circle; when they see a father, a son, a husband, or a brother, sinking beneath its deadly poison; when they hear the mumbling of the foolish kinsman beneath their own roof; when they see the red grave yawn to receive the bloated form of a beloved one, then they are ready to cry out with all the bitterness and anguish of a crushed soul, "Woe is me! Woe is me!"

To realize fully the terrible effect of drunkenness, it must be brought to one's own home. The curse must linger on the threshold to learn in truth how black a shadow it casts.—Death must come in its wake and mow down a cherished flower, to teach us how truly blighting and blasting it really is. Man is so constituted that he cannot correctly estimate it by others' griefs. He must tread the dark path in its bitter experience to know its terrible character.

There is an old mother, long a widow, and her downcast eyes dim with weeping. She has seen go down to the darkness of the grave a husband and three strong sons, sent thither by the use of rum. These many years she has been weeping her life away. Go, read the tear-stained leaf of her old broken heart, and you will learn more of the accursed work of rum than human pen can write. Go, read its bitter lessons.—Spirit of the Age.

Rev. Dr. Osgood, of the Church of the Messiah, New York, received $1,700 from some of his parishioners on New Year's day, to build him a summer residence in the country.

The New Haven Journal says that the Rev. Dr. Todd, rector of the Protestant Episcopal church, at Stamford, Conn., received a check for $600, as a Christmas present, from fourteen of his parishioners. The rector, we believe, has been in charge of the parish for over forty years.

At the dedication in West Cambridge, on Thursday last, the venerable Dr. Abiel Abbott, over ninety years old, read the Doxology, "From all that dwell below the skies," &c.—His apostolic appearance—his long white locks covering his shoulders, his heavenly countenance and his tender enunciation—brought the St. John of ninety before every eye. It seemed as if he had descended from heaven on purpose to give heaven's own accents to the words of that hymn.

Army of Locusts.—Letters from Shanghai, China, mention an extraordinary flight of locusts which had passed over the city, continuing for several days, and coming apparently from the northwest. On the afternoon of the 17th of September they literally darkened the air for about an hour, but all day it was one continued flight. Millions upon millions fell into the river. The French frigate Virginia saw them, it is said, fifty miles out at sea.—There had been plentiful falls of rain, but locusts had committed frightful ravages upon the grain crop; and altogether, the season had been a most unfortunate one for the Chinese—first, the long drought, and then this plague of locusts. The natives say such a sight has not been witnessed these fifty years.

Murderous. Obscure hints have been from time to time given out respecting the invention of a new war engine of great power by a New Yorker. A writer states that the inventor is now in England, experimenting with the machine before the British Admiralty. The account given of the instrument is that it resembles a small grind-stone, turned by a crank and will discharge 300 one-ounce balls every minute, attended by only two men. Every machine is calculated to destroy three regiments of soldiers in the same space of time.—It can be directed with the same ease as a common rifle is handled. It discharges without report, and sends a ball three times the distance of the ordinary rifle or cannon, as the case may be. The British government has offered the inventor £200,000 sterling, if he can enlarge his machine to discharge a sixty-four-pound shot. This he is now doing, and informs his agent here that he shall accomplish it. The Russian minister at London is anxious for the patent, and has offered him his price; but he says to his friends, "I mean no other nation shall have it but England and my own country."—Exchange.

Key West Salt.—We received yesterday from the manufacturer, Mr. W. C. Dennis, a bag of Key West Salt. It is said to be fully ten per cent. purer than Turks Island salt, and the manufacturer warrants it to be four per cent. purer than any made in the United States or imported from other countries. For table use, it is considered the best now in use.—Mobile Tribune.

Life on an Engine.—The life of a railroad engineer is graphically depicted in the following extract from the Schenectady Star:

"But the engineer he who guides the train by guiding the iron horse, and almost holds the lives of passengers in his hands—his is a life of mingled danger and pleasure. In a little seven-by-nine apartment, with square holes on each side for windows, open behind, and with machinery to cut through ahead, you find him; he is the "Pathfinder" he leads the way in all times of danger, checks the iron horse, or causes it to speed ahead with the velocity of the wind, at will. Have you ever stood by the track of a dark night, and watched the coming and passing of a train? Away off in the darkness you discern a light, and you hear a noise, and the earth trembles beneath your feet. The light comes nearer—you can compare it to nothing but the devil himself, with its terrible whistle—the sparks you imagine come from Beelzebub's nostrils, the fire underneath that blazes close to the ground, causing you to believe the devil walks on live coals. It comes close to you—you back away and shudder—you look up, and almost on the devil's back rides the engineer—perhaps the machine shrieks, and you imagine the engineer is applying spurs to the devil's sides.

A daring fellow, that engineer—you can't help saying so, and you wonder wherein lies the pleasure of being an engineer. But so he does, day after day—night after night. Moonlight evenings he sweeps over the country—through cities and villages—through fairy scenes and forest clearings—he looks through the square holes at his side, and enjoys the moonlight, but he cannot stop to enjoy the beauty of the scenery. Cold, rainy, muddy, dark nights, it is the same; perhaps the tracks are undermined or overflowed with water; perhaps scoundrels have placed obstructions in the way, or trees been overturned across the track, and in either case it is almost instant death to him, at least—but he stops not. Right on, is the word with him, and on he goes, regardless of danger, weather and everything save the well-doing of his duty. Think of him, ye who shudder through fear in the cushioned seats of the cars, and get warm from the fire that is kindled for your benefit."

Interesting to Seamen—Edwards' Shoal—Nantucket Sound. The following description of this newly discovered shoal, is in a letter from Com. Rogers of the Coast Survey to the Secretary of the Treasury:

"At the end of last season I had the honor to report the discovery and partial examination of a shoal south of the Cross Rips in Nantucket Sound, which with your sanction has been called Edwards' Shoal. This was carefully surveyed in the operations of my party during the season just ended. It lies in the channel way south of the Cross Rips, surrounded by deep water, and its crest is a narrow ridge, more than half a mile in length, with only ten and twelve feet water upon it. It may consequently be considered worthy of special attention, and should at once be carefully buoyed.

"From the eastern side of the ridge, which rises like a wall in the sea, the water deepens abruptly to five fathoms. On the western side the ridge falls more gradually, and from its centre a spur of shoal makes out to the westward for more than a quarter of a mile; with sixteen and eighteen feet water upon it.

"The shoal is composed of hard sand. Its northern edge is distant from the Nantucket Light-Boat one and seven-eighths nautical miles, and from the southern Cross Rip about three-quarters of a mile. In the channel between it and the Cross Rips we found from six to ten fathoms water.

"It is remarkable that a shoal like this, so constantly passed by vessels beating through the southern channel of Nantucket Sound, should have been so long unknown, and particularly that it should have escaped the notice of the pilots. Its discovery forcibly illustrates the value of the comprehensive methods employed in the Coast Survey, and the practical utility of making the hills and valleys in the sea as well known as those on the shore.

"I beg leave to report also, that the developments of our survey during the season exhibit sand ridges a little more than two miles to the northward of Great Point Light, bearing from it N. 15deg. 30m W. to N. 22deg. 30 min. W., and having in some places on their crests as little as nineteen feet water. They lie parallel to each other in a general direction about N. N. W. and S. S. E., are short and very narrow, and have five and six fathoms of water around and between them."

Probable Murder by a Negro.—A shocking attempt to murder his mistress was made by a negro boy in Caroline county, on Friday night of last week. It appears that Mr. John Clift, the boy's master, was in Fredericksburg at the time the attack was made on the life of his wife. Mr. C. resides in the neighborhood of Rappahannock Academy. It seems that on the night in question, the negro boy, aged about 17, came home later than usual, when his mistress told him she would not remain up all night to give him his supper, whereupon he got angry and told the children to leave as he was going to kill their mother. The boy got an axe, and dealt her some blows on the head, after which he left for Port Royal. Arriving there he said that two men had killed Mrs. C., but blood being found on his person he was arrested, and we learn confessed the crime.—There was much excitement on the subject, and a strong disposition shown to hang him up. At our last advices Mrs. C. was still alive and communicated the facts in the case.—Fredericksburg Herald.

The Morning Star.—We learn that the children's subscriptions towards paying for the beautiful missionary brig, "The Morning Star," have reached the sum of nearly or quite $23,000. As the vessel cost but $18,000, this will leave a sufficient surplus to keep her in repair.—Bath Tribune.

It is told of Charles Lamb, that, one afternoon, having taken a seat in a crowded omnibus, a stout gentleman subsequently looked in and politely said—"All full inside?" "I don't know how, it may be with the other passengers," answered Lamb, "but that last piece of oyster pie did the business for me."

Congress.

WASHINGTON, 7th.

SENATE. Mr Weller reported a bill to increase the pay of officers in the army, and said he would call it up at an early day.

The Iowa election case was considered.

Mr. Bayard argued against the right of Mr. Harlan to a seat. When, he said, two integral bodies are to perform any act, both must be present at the time or it cannot be constitutionally done. In the present case it was admitted that the Senate of Iowa as a body did not participate in the election, nor did a quorum of that body vote on that occasion, therefore Mr. Harlan was voted for only by one branch of the legislature.

Mr. Foster, replying, said that after the convention was duly organized by the concurrence of the legislature, it remained in session, and could be dissolved only by the vote of a majority of the convention, or by the withdrawal of such a number of members as would leave less than a quorum present.

The members ceased to act in the capacity of Senators and Representatives, but were to be counted numerically. Mr. Harlan having received a majority of the votes of all the members of the convention. If sixteen Senators who absented themselves had been present and voted against Mr Harlan, he would still have been elected.

Mr. Seward obtained the floor.

The President pro-tem submitted a letter from Mr. Hamlin, resigning his seat as a Senator from Maine.

Adjourned till Friday.

HOUSE. The debate continued on a motion to print the President's Message.

Mr. Barclay of Pa. reviewed the message in order to show the untenable position of the President in regard to the slavery question.

Mr. Sandridge commenced a speech by reading the American party's lesson in return for the one delivered yesterday by Mr. Davis of Maryland, to the democracy.

Adjourned till Friday.

Washington Items.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.

It appears from documents sent to the Senate to-day by the President, that the refusal of Mr. Dubois, Minister of the Netherlands, to testify in the Herbert case, was grounded on international law, on the constitution of the United States, and on a special law of our own enactment; and after he had a consultation with the diplomatic corps, he states he was the only impartial spectator of the proceedings at Willard's Hotel which resulted in the duel of Keating. He would have had no objection to being a witness, if his position as representative of his government did not prevent him from appearing in a court of law where he would be subject to a cross examination.

Mr. Belmont, our Minister to the Hague, by direction of Mr. Marcy, brought the conduct of Mr. Dubois to the notice of the king, who, while approving the position of the minister, expressed the warmest feelings of friendship for this government.

About 40 members of Congress held a caucus to-day, to consider what was best to be done relative to the 50 or 60 river and harbor bills now pending in both houses. It was considered to unite them all in one bill, and use efforts thus to pass them over the Executive veto.

The Post Office Committee of the House are to have a meeting to-night, to consider the propriety to let all mail steamer contracts to the lowest bidder, under the direction of the Postmaster General.

Supreme Court.—Robert J. Vanderbilt, appellant, vs. Edward Mills, claimant of the mysterious Yankee Blade. Justice Grier delivered the opinion of the court, affirming the decree of the circuit court of California, with costs.

In the case of Seymour and Morgan against Cyrus H. McCormick, the Supreme Court affirmed the judgement of the court below sustaining all its pleas on the patents of McCormick excepting as to the construction of a claim not embraced in the suit, and on this a majority decided there was no error. The effect of this last is to deprive Mr. McCormick of costs.

Documents submitted to-day relative to the submarine Atlantic telegraph were referred to the Post Office Committee of the Senate.

New Postal Arrangement.

The Evening Post's Washington correspondent says an important postal convention has been entered into the U S by the French government. It allows us to transmit letters prepaid in the U. States through France to all the powers with which she has postal conventions, and she has now more than any other nation. The rates per quarter ounce will be: For France 15c; England, Belgium, &c. 21c; Austria, Italy, &c. 28c; Constantinople, the Levant, &c. 31c; the East Indies 38c. This is regarded as one of the greatest national importance.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 7th.

New Orleans papers, contain advices from Costa Rica to Dec. 3d. The Costa Rica papers are jubilant over Walker's defeat.

Later dates from Texas report that the negroes in Houston County had attempted to revolt but were quelled.

Railroad Collision.

SPRINGFIELD, Jan. 7th.

A serious collision took place on the Connecticut River Railroad this morning between Springfield and Chicopee, by a freight and passenger train coming together. One man was killed and three or four dangerously wounded.

Fire at Quebec.

QUEBEC, Jan. 7th.

Tibbits's Foundry at Point Levi was totally destroyed by fire yesterday—Loss $20,000, insurance $14,000.

Ice has formed across the River opposite the city, strong enough for the passage of teams.

Massachusetts Legislature.

BOSTON, Jan. 7th.

The Massachusetts Legislature assembled to-day and promptly organized. The Senate elected Charles N. Upham of Salem, President, and Peter H. Cox of Lynn, Clerk.

The House chose Charles A Phelps of Boston, Speaker, and William Stone of Springfield, Clerk. Vote nearly unanimous.

Convention of Republican Editors.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 7th.

A convention of the Republican editors of Indiana, was held here yesterday. Resolves were passed asserting the power and duty of Congress to prohibit slavery in the Territories; regarding the principles and measures of the Philadelphia convention essential to the prosperity of the country and urging that as the State Sedate of 1856 refused to go into joint convention for the election of a United States Senator and other officers, and refused to pass a law prescribing the modes of election of United States Senators; it is but just and proper that the opposition members of the approaching Legislature refuse with firmness and determination to go into a joint convention for the election of any officers or consent to an election of a U. S. Senate other than by a separate vote of the two houses.

The Legislature.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 7, 1857

GENTS:

The organization of the Legislature was effected to-day with very little difficulty, and very general satisfaction. The Republican members met at the State House last evening, and made their selections, and to-day their candidates were all elected by a full Republican vote.

In the Senate the officers are as follows:

President—Joseph H. Williams of Augusta.

Secretary—J. B. Hall of Presque Isle.

Assistant Secretary—J. K. Clark of Wiscasset.

Messenger—George Humphrey, of Yarmouth.

Assistant Messenger—Orrin Currier, of Solon.

The House made choice of the following officers:

Speaker—Charles A. Spofford, of Deer Isle.

Clerk—George W. Wilcox, of Dixmont.

Assistant Clerk—Benjamin Freeman, of Westbrook.

Messenger—B. B. Thomas, of Newburgh.

Assistant Messenger—To be appointed by Messenger.

The selections have been made from men eminently qualified for the stations, and give excellent satisfaction.

The best feeling prevails among the Republicans generally, and it seems to be the determination that the session shall be short, and one of usefulness.

The Legislature is composed of the substantial men of the State.

In the Senate, the unanimity of the democratic party is surprising. It will be remembered that Mr. Smith of Aroostook is the only democratic member, and it created much merriment to see notices posted up yesterday morning for the caucus of the democratic member of the Senate at No. 39 Stanley House Tuesday evening. Mr. Smith, like a true patriot showed his devotion to his party by carrying a clean democratic vote for President, and the fun was still further followed out by the unanimous election of Dr. Jordan of Bangor, as the candidate of the democratic party in the Senate for Secretary. The Doctor only lacked fifteen votes of an election.

Governor Hamlin's resignation as U. S. Senator was received by Speaker Spofford to-day, and one of the first duties of the Legislature will be to elect a Senator for the short term. Very little interest in that matter, as the Senator to be elected for the long term, overrides other questions.

Mr. Hamlin arrived to day, in the morning train from the West, somewhat fatigued, but in good health.

Brig L. Copeland, of Boston, (built at Brewer six years ago,) was knocked down in a gale 23d, in lat 38 lon 71, and abandoned 26th.—Capt and crew taken off by schr Alba, at New York.

Tuesday's western mail was received last evening, but Wednesday's is in the drift, in its turn.

The Boston Times announces that Hon. W. S. S. Moor, of Maine, is in town, stopping at the Tremont House. But whether on his way to or from Wheatland, the Times neglects to inform us!

SOMERSET DEPUTY SHERIFFS. The new Sheriff, Daniel Bunker, Esq., has appointed Horatio Cushing, of Bloomfield, Joseph F. Nye, of Fairfield, and Levi Powers, of Norridgewock, as his Deputies.

Thrice-Weekly
Kennebec Journal for 1857.
DURING the approaching session of the Legislature, the undersigned will continue the publication of the Thrice-weekly Journal, being the XIIIth Volume of the same.

As is well known, the chief purpose of this paper is to afford the public of Maine a faithful account of the deliberations and actions of the Legislature. With the reports of the Legislative doings, we intend also to publish the proceedings of Congress; as they are given in the best reports from Washington.

As the renewal of all the Bank Charters in the State will come before the Legislature this Winter, the debates and proceedings will be of peculiar interest to all who are interested in Bank property.

The numerous lines of railroad which now traverse the State in all directions, will enable a very large proportion of our subscribers to receive their papers a few hours after their publication. This fact renders a subscription to the Thrice-Weekly more desirable and satisfactory than in former years.

The Thrice-Weekly Journal will be published on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings.—The price will be

Single Copy—One Dollar for the Session,

As usual, payable in advance. Any person forwarding us $8 shall be entitled to the fifth copy for his trouble. To any one who will send us $15 we will send two copies extra for his trouble.—Whoever shall send us $24 shall be entitled to three copies extra, and in like ratio for larger amount.

☞ It is desirat le that the names of subscribers accompanied with the money, may be forwarded at or before the commencement of the session.—Money remitted by mail at our risk.

GREAT
BOOK SALE.
.....FOR A.....
FEW DAYS ONLY.
$40,000
Worth of Books and other Valuable Property to be sold for only $25,000.
The Franklin Book Company
Is connected with the most extensive Book Publishing Houses in the United States, and wishing to dispose of a large stock of Books now on hand, have adopted the following liberal plan:—

Books that usually sell as from $1,00 to $1,25 and even $1,50, we shall sell for $1,00 each, and every purchaser of Books will have the privilege of buying one of the following articles to help our Agent selected, at the following prices:

100 Gold Watches, usually sold for	$40,00 each,	$4,00
100 Silk Dresses, or
100 Gold Chains, (choice;	15,00 "	3,00
250 Silver Watches,	12,00 "	3,00
200 Gold Thimbles,	3,00 "	75
400 Gold Breast Pins,	3,00 "	75
200 Gold Ear Ornaments,	3,00 "	75
1000 Gold Lockets,	4,00 "	1,00
200 "	1,50 "	38
3,000 Gold Pencils,	2,00 "	50
3,000 Gold Breast Pins,	1,00 "	25
7,000 Gold Rings,	1,50 "	38
10,000 Books,	1,00 "	25

Strange as it may seem, it is nevertheless true that we sell good Gold and Silver Watches, and silk Dresses, for only three dollars each; and Gold Lockets, Gold Pencils, Pins, Rings, &c., for twenty-five cents each.

The key to all this is, we have our books at cost of manufacture, and the profit we place on them enables us to sell each customer for Books, single other article for a very nominal price, which is about equal to giving it away.

The following is a list of BOOKS that you can select from, at $1,00 each neatly bound in cloth:

Ernest Linwood,
Forest and Shore,
The Lamplighter,
Amy Lee,
Town and Country
Life of Christ and his Apostles,
Pilgrim's Progress,
Methodist Preacher,
Methodism as it was and is,
Life of Rev. Jesse Lee,
Daughters of the Queens,
Angel Visitants,
Young Man's Friend,
The Basse,
Life among the Pioneers,
Esther Leger Case,
Green Mountain Boys,
The Rangers,

Peril,
Tupper's Political Works,
Miss Scott's Moore's, Byron's, Pope's, Burns's, Hemans's, Milton's, Cowper's, and other Poetical Works,
Wife Slaves of England,
Indian Wars,
Mirror of the World,
Life, Mary, and Caste,
Life of Washington,

And others too numerous to mention. Those who want Books only can have two of the above for $1,25.

WE WISH TO SELL

"Books that are Books!"

Books that will instruct and amuse all, and make the world better by reading them. We would particularly invite the Ladies to call, for a large share of our Books were published expressly for Lady Readers. We have a large stock of Histories and Dictionaries; also, a splendid lot of Family Bibles, which we will sell cheap.

In regard to the manner in which other enterprises may have been conducted, we have nothing to say, but our Sale will be conducted in a strictly legal and honorable manner, and when any one wish to question this fact, are referred to our attorneys, Messrs. Eastman & Leland, of Saco, and John M. Goodwin, Esq., of Biddeford; who have proved each to be the case; or our attorneys in Bangor can explain the nature of our sale. So call and examine our Books, our assortment of Jewelry, and our manner of doing business.

Supply the best, finest and purest articles, at the lowest Cash prices. Their Stock consists of Teas, Coffees, Chocolates, Allspice, Pepper, Mustard, Ginger, Cayenne Pepper, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Cream Tartar, Taraxacum or Prepared Dandelion Root, &c.

Having every facility for manufacturing and preparing the several articles named, the public may rely on having them pure and genuine, as they are put up carefully, and bear our name and label, "TREMONT MILLS, E. E. DYER & CO." To give consumers some idea of our sales, we annex the following scale of prices, viz:

5lb. Souchong Tea,	1,50	5lb. Mocha Coffee,	1,00
5lb. Oolong Tea,	1,75	5lb. Java Coffee,	,90
5lb. Y. Hyson Tea,	2,45	8lb. good Coffee,	1,00

The Spices are put up in ¼ and ½ lb. tin cases, expressly for family use, and are warranted to be strictly a pure article, and only need a trial to establish them in public favor.

SPANISH COFFEE.—We would call the attention of consumers and dealers to our Spanish Coffee, as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and by a peculiar process in roasting, one pound of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 1½ lbs. of any other.

DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our mills, and put up in packages having our trade mark, and may be relied upon as the best and most approved mixture of dandelion and coffee.

TARAXACUM, or Prepared Dandelion Root. This article is prepared and roasted at our Mills, is retailed by Family Grocers generally in city and country, and bearing our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee," may be relied upon as the genuine article. The proportion used is about one half the quantity of coffee. The price is 20 cents per pound, and it is warranted to be the same as that which has been sold for fifty cents a pound by druggists.

The medical properties of Dandelion are well known, and held in high estimation by all who use it. This being a preparation of the root, with all its medicinal virtues retained, can be mixed with coffee or not, as best suits the taste, and will be found cheap and economical as a family beverage, one pound of which being nearly equal to two pounds of coffee. It is prescribed by many eminent physicians, to invalids, children and aged persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Bilious affections, &c.

Be careful to observe that all our Coffees have our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee."

To Grocers and Dealers a liberal discount is made, enabling them to supply their customers at the same low rates.

TO CASH PURCHASERS.—Our object being to secure large sales at small profits, we offer inducements which cannot be afforded by those who do business on the credit system; and we confidently invite an examination of the quality of our stock, and our prices, as compared with those of any other house.

OLD DR. CULVERWELL'S

(Member of the Royal College of Surgeons (1827,) Licentiate of the Hall (1824,) and 25 years Medical Reform, &c.)

Radical Regenerator,

FOR SEMINAL WEAKNESS,

In all its forms, as Nocturnal and Diurnal Emissions, Nervous Irritability, Premature Decay, Loss of Virility, Impotency, and all diseases arising from early indiscretion.

This excellent Remedy, discovered by the world renowned DR. CULVERWELL, in London, the most successful practitioner in his line for the last 30 years, is now for the first time offered to the afflicted in the fullest confidence of its extraordinary virtues. Its salutary effect is almost instantly felt, and it will doubtless at once supersede all other means resorted to, medical, surgical or otherwise, to arrest and to cure this awful disease. A single trial will convince the most sceptical, that a safe and perfect cure may now be had at the expense of a few dollars, which up to this date could not be procured for all the gold of the world. The heavy expenses incurred in bringing this article before the public could not be risked, were its superiority over every means hitherto employed for the same purpose not a sure guarantee that its employment by one person would, through recommendation, result in an eventual sale to many.

DR. CULVERWELL's admirable and entirely novel plan of treating these diseases, is, in the interest of Humanity, recommended to physicians throughout the land, to whom every facility will be afforded for testing its wonderful efficacy in their private practice.

Full and plain directions for all the different varieties of the complaint accompany Dr. Culverwell's REGENERATOR-REMEDY, which enable every one to treat himself or herself successfully. Price $2; on the receipt of which it will be forwarded by mail, free of postage, to any part of the country. Address, Messrs. BRIDGMAN & CO., Druggists and Apothecaries, 158 Grand-St., New York, Sole Agents for the United States and Canada. Nov. 29 d&wly

GREAT American and Foreign Office

—FOR—

Securing Patents for Inventions.

AGENCY FOR BUSINESS WITH THE U. S. PATENT OFFICE, WASHINGTON.

R. H. EDDY,

No. 76 State Street, opposite Kilby St., BOSTON.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION TO INVENTORS.—The subscriber, (late agent of the U. S. Patent Office under the Act of 1837,) determined to present advantages in applying for patents, superior to those offered inventors by others, has made arrangements, whereby, on applications prepared and conducted by him, THIRTY DOLLARS (instead of twenty, as paid back by others,) will be remitted by him in case of failure to obtain a patent, and the withdrawal, through him, within thirty days after the rejection.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings necessary to the procural of patents in this and foreign countries, prepared, and advice rendered on legal and scientific matters respecting inventions, and infringement of patents. All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Copies of the claims of any patent furnished for one dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington. Patents secured in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries, through agents of the highest respectability.

R. H. EDDY, Solicitor of Patents.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. EDDY, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor for procuring Patents.—There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity and success. I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

[From the present Commissioner.]

"August 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice at the office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

PROFESSOR WOOD'S

HAIR RESTORATIVE.

It has Worked Miracles!

THAT ALL THE BALD AND GRAY can be restored perfectly to original growth and color, so far as their locks are concerned, does not admit of doubt; besides, it will cure every possible disease of the scalp, whether developed as dandruff, itching, or in the shape of cutaneous eruptions—even scald-head—and in no possible case will it fail of curing, as if by magic, nervous or periodical Head-ache, and if used twice a week by the young regularly, it will preserve the color, and keep the hair from falling to any imaginable age. Read and judge.

MILLTOWN, Worcester Co., Mass., Nov. 1855.

PROF. O. J. WOOD—Dear Sir:—I take pleasure in bearing voluntary testimony to the magic effects of your wonderful Hair Restorative. As far back as 1836, my hair commenced falling off, until the top of my scalp became bald and smooth as glass, and it has continued to fall for a great many years, notwithstanding I have used many celebrated preparations for restoration. Seeing your advertisement, I was induced to give your article a trial, and to my utter astonishment, found, after a few applications, that my hair became firmly set, and assumed a glossy and beautiful appearance; and by the time I had used a quart bottle, my bald head was covered with a young and vigorous growth of hair, which is now from one to two inches and a half in length, and growing fast.

Yours truly,
HENRY GOODRICH.

CHARLESTON, Mass., Aug. 9, 1855.

GENTS:—Nothing but a duty and sympathy that I feel to communicate to others that are afflicted as I have been would induce me to give this public acknowledgment of the benefit I have received from Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative. When I first commenced using it my hair was quite gray, and in spots entirely bald. I have now used the Restorative about five months, and my hair is entirely changed to its original color, brown, and the new hair is over three inches in length on the spots where it was bald. I have also been much gratified at the healthy moisture and vigor of the hair, which before was dry, and it has ceased to come out as formerly.

Respectfully yours, &c.
MRS. R. A. STODDARD.

[From Mrs. Ingalls, a well known nurse in Boston.]

BOSTON, Oct. 19, 1855.

GENTS:—At your request, and being so highly pleased with the effects of the Restorative, I am free to state that my hair had become quite thin, and entirely white. I have for the last five years been in the habit of using dye, but hearing of the extraordinary effects of this article, I was induced to try it. My hair has been restored to its original thickness, and also to its former color, which is light brown.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. INGALLS.

The following is from the Pastor of the Orthodox Church, Brookfield:—

BROOKFIELD, Mass., Jan. 12, 1855.

PROF. WOOD—Dear Sir:—Having made trial of your Hair Restorative, it gives me pleasure to say, that its effects have been excellent in removing inflammation, dandruff, and a constant tendency to itching, with which I have been troubled from my childhood; and has also restored the hair, which was becoming gray, to its original color. I have used no other article with anything like the same pleasure and profit.

Yours truly,
J. K. BRAGG.

[From the Jersey City Telegraph.]

WHAT IS IT FOR?—The Wood's HAIR RESTORATIVE?—Is a question asked daily by hundreds. We answer without hesitation, or fear of contradiction, that it is the only article known which will do all it professes for the human hair. It will renew its growth—it will stop its falling—it will restore its natural color! It is not a hair dye, but a speedy and efficacious Restorative.

J. RUSSELL SPALDING'S

ROSE MARY

This great and popular preparation is declared to be one of the nicest and best articles in the world for the HAIR.

It imparts a richness and brilliancy, cleanses, ornaments, invigorates, embellishes, removes dandruff, relieves headache, and has probably been used for restoring and preventing the falling out of the hair with as much success as any article ever known. It has stood the test of time and use, and all can rely upon it.

Sole Proprietor, J. RUSSELL SPALDING, Manufacturing Chemist. Principal Depot, 27 Tremont St., opposite the Museum, Boston, Mass., where all orders should be addressed. The fac-simile of his signature is on every bottle of the genuine.
